Appointment of Finance Director Senior leadership team appointments

Comptoir Group Plc (AIM: COM), the owner and/or operator of Lebanese, Middle Eastern and North African inspired restaurants is pleased to announce the appointment of James Fisher as Finance Director. James, who joins from Wahaca, will start at Comptoir in Summer 2024 and will be appointed to the Board.

James brings more than a decade of experience in senior financial roles across the consumer and hospitality sectors. Since September 2020, James held the role of Finance Director at Wahaca, and prior to that he was Financial Controller between 2018 and 2020. James was previously Senior Finance Manager at BT and the Group Reporting Manager at Inchcape. James is an ACA qualified accountant.

Senior leadership team appointments

James' appointment finalises the restructure of the senior leadership team at Comptoir Group following the appointment of Travis Fish as Operations Director and Dominika Kurowska as People Director.

Most recently, Travis was Managing Director at Ballie Ballerson, the cocktail bar operator, and prior to that was co-founder of Middle Eastern QSR brand Bababoom. He has previous experience at Nando's and M&B. Dominika has most recently been consulting for brands in the hospitality sector and prior to that has held senior roles at contract caterers, CH&Co and Harbour & Jones.

Nick Ayerst, CEO of Comptoir, commented:

"We are excited to welcome James, Travis and Dominika to the Comptoir Group and look forward to benefitting from their experience and sector expertise. This is a key time for Comptoir with both franchise and equity restaurant openings, and we are confident that these three senior appointments will help lead the business into the next phase of growth. We know there is strong demand for our brand of Lebanese, Middle Eastern & North African food and we are on a mission to further grow this market serving our great food and hospitality one dish at a time."
